Worship @ Home 2

Each morning and each evening let the peace of the Father, be ours.
Each day and each night let the peace of the Son be ours.
Each dawn and dusk let the peace of the Spirit be ours.
Let the blessing of the three in one be ours, bot now and forever. Amen.

Dear Brothers and Sisters

It has been almost 6 weeks since our Worship@home packs were first developed and distributed. I hope you have found them a valuable resource and been encouraged in your faith as you set time aside each day for prayer and worship. Whilst we all look forward to the time when we can gather together and collectively worship at St Mary's, that may be some time yet. The importance of social distancing it seems continues for now, hence, this second booklet with daily readings, a suggested hymn and a collection of prayers you may like to use.

In 'The Prayer Book for Australia' you will find the 'Daily Services' on page 382. These contain a 'form or guided prayer and worship' for each morning and evening. In addition, there is a guided service of prayer for use at the end of the day (also called compline) on page 439.

Whilst we may be restricted at present in our time together face-to-face, we are united in Christ and I have no doubt, in our hearts. As your Priest, I hold each of you close to my heart and shall be continually holding you in prayer before our wonderful and gracious heavenly Father. Please, be encouraged to embrace this opportunity to draw deep into the wellspring of God's heart where each of us find everlasting hope, peace and strength.

The Service of Praise, Prayer and Proclamation on page 34 is, I think, a beautiful Service you may also like to use.

The Psalms for the day can be found from pages 224-380, and there are Prayers for Various Occasions that you may also like to use from pages 183 -217.

May our worship draw us deeper into the wellsprings of our heavenly Father, nurture us in our faith and strengthen us as disciples of Christ so that bear witness to His grace and love wherever we are.

Grace and Peace to you and your household, Rev Tracey Wolsley

PRAYERS ..

God who stills the waters and quiets the storm,
God who lets not a hair of our heads fall without your knowledge,
God who brings sight to the blind and words to quieted tongues,
God who created the earth and all that is in it,
God who teaches the foolish and strengthens the wise,
God who promises a coming day
when there will be no more mourning or crying or pain,
when death will pass away,
when all things will be made new:

Bring healing to our world, to our neighbours, and to us.
Bring wisdom so we may honour you and bring glory to you at all times.
Bring strength so we may rejoice in your love.
Bring patience that is grounded in actively living in your ways.
Bring hope that is rooted in your good news of shalom.
Bring grace and calm to us so we may bring grace and calm to others.
Through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

.... A NEW MORNING

Oh Lord, may I walk in the way of life today, faithful to what you have entrusted to me for this day,
no more and no less.
Let me not become anxious over the things that I cannot control but instead receive your grace to face these things trustingly.
In Jesus' name. Amen.

.... RENEWED HOPE

Oh God, you who make new, again and again,
enliven the thoughts of my mind,
revitalize the cells of my body,
and cause a fresh outburst of praise to surge in my heart,
so that I might taste the Life that is truly life this day.
In the name of the One whose face is like the shining sun.
Amen and amen!

May the power of the Risen One defeat all that plagues us; May the mercy of the Risen One comfort the hearts of those who suffer; May hope in the Risen One sustain those who mourn; May the love of the Risen One move us to love and serve our neighbour without selfishness; May the peace of the Risen One calm our anxiety and free us from all fear. In faith, we pray in the name of Jesus, who died, was raised, and is with us until the end of the world. Amen.
